

Support Opportunities

Presenting Sponsor of Forward Currents Festival

This partnership supports the entire weekend of programming included in the festival

- Naming rights to the festival with company name and/or logo included in name
- Sponsored program name to be used on all program material for the festival
- Recognition on promotional materials, educational support materials and digital content
- Opportunity to provide in-person, written or video introduction to the festival
- Additional benefits during the RSO Concert season such as invitations to special events, program advertising and recognition

Festival Concert Sponsor

3 Available

This partnership supports an individual concert in the festival

- “Presented by” subtitle added to concert title
- Recognition on promotional materials, educational support materials and digital content
- Opportunity to provide in-person, written or video introduction to the sponsored concert

Pops Concert Sponsor

This partnership supports the May 7 Pops concert

- “Presented by” subtitle added to program title
- Recognition on promotional materials, educational support materials and digital content
- Opportunity to provide in-person, written or video introduction to the sponsored concert

Education Sponsor

This partnership supports the pre show chats sessions offered as part of the festival

- Company name and/or logo recognition as the “Education Sponsor”
- Recognition on promotional materials, educational support materials and digital content

In-Kind Support

Benefits customized to contribution value

These partnerships provide services needed to provide the programming and host an audience

- Recognition on promotional materials, educational support materials and digital content

The support can be provided as a donation for a partial tax receipt or as a sponsorship for additional recognition opportunities. Additional benefits during the RSO Concert season such as invitations to special events, program advertising and recognition. Benefits can also be customized to support the goals of our program partners so please contact us to discuss.

Contact Us

For information on how to support these or other projects as sponsor, please contact:

Megan McCormick, Director of Marketing & Development | 306-791-6398 | mmccormick@reginasymphony.com

