MORE THAN A SEAT

When you book your ticket to the Regina Symphony, you are not just getting a seat for the show – you are also supporting our work.

As a registered charity, the RSO is committed to providing high quality live music experiences. We hire musicians who live and work in our city. We support local venues and businesses. We invest in the future of music through our education programs and community concerts.

We love performing live for our audiences and that you choose to support us!
