Gordon Gerrard
Music Director

Welcome to the RSO's 2024-2025 season! I am excited to share the new line-up of unforgettable opportunities to experience your wonderful orchestra. There is something special about the hope of a new season, and the new possibilities for connection through shared music experiences. This season, we will journey through the musical worlds of Classics, Pops and Chamber with new works and old favourites. Building on the success of our debut season, we will be returning to Darke Hall, with an added matinee to make sure everyone can experience this special take on the classics.

The launch of a new season is a time to look ahead and plan our time together to celebrate our community. We will continue to explore the music that has brought us all together in the past, and welcome new members to our RSO family. It remains a privilege to be the Music Director of the Regina Symphony Orchestra, and I look forward to sharing our new season with you.
